NAME: James Bryden

Industry and Professional Development

2.2 Describe a range of key job roles and responsibilities in the film industry

Research 5 different roles in a film production and summarise the responsibilities and qualities needed to carry out each role.

1	Director - Calls the shots and Manages the actors, telling them what to do. He also Manages the camera so they can get the shots he wants. He is often responsible for the outcome of the film.
2	1st assistant directors. Manages everyone on ~~set~~ set. They check that everything is running smoothly and will sort out a lot of problems. They're responsible for having everything done on time.

NAME:

3	Editor. - cuts the footage together often with the director advising him. They are responsable for ~~fetting~~ cutting the stay together.
4	Camera operator: operates the camera, is responsable for pressing record and ending the footage. will control when the camera moves and must follow the instrcutions of the director.
5	Actor - Performs infront of the camera and follows the script. They play the roles of the characters and will follow the instructions of the director. They must learn

NAME:

Create a diagram or map to explain how these roles might work together during a film production.

