James Bigden

Working Practices and Legislation

4.2 Explain why copyright is important in the film industry

Why does copyright law exist?	To protect the artist's work from being stolen.
What kind of work is covered by copyright?	Any original work which is created by the human mind.
What might happen if you were to use copyrighted material in your film?	You could be sued. have a lawsuit against you. Then you could be fined and could have to remove it.
How can you make sure not to infringe copyright law in your film?	create all the work originally.
How has copyright law and other IP regulation affected your film production?	Sometimes I can't use the right music.